THE BAYSHORE
ON HILTON HEAD ISLAND

At The Bayshore on Hilton Head Island you don't have to give up what you want—to get what you need.

Many times, those who need a hand with daily activities are faced with moving into a dedicated assisted living community or a separate area in a senior living community that does not offer the same lifestyle. Often the apartments are small with no kitchens and very little common areas to enjoy.

The Bayshore on Hilton Head Island is a revolutionary concept: you can have all the benefits of assisted living with all the benefits of upscale independent living without being set apart. You enjoy a spacious, well-appointed residence complete with a full-sized kitchen, plus the energy and vitality of the island vibe, and receive daily assistance right in your residence.

That's what we call island assisted living!
